And for any delay up to an amount maximized to SDR 50,000 per order, unless the transportation is subject to legislation or a transport document which sets other limitations. For storage the freight forwarder's liability in respect to all entities for injuries, that occur at the same event, limited to SDR 500,000 ($ 27). Attention is drawn particularly to the fact, that claims against the freight forwarder are time-barred after 1 year ($ 30) and that the lien ($ 14) includes both current and previous claims. Claims for freight i.e. must be fulfilled regardless of the contract of sale ($ 10). In accordance with our claim on cargo payment, set off must not be invoked. For the issuance of T-document the issuer is responsible for the timely closure of the T-document, and all costs of the non-closure of T-document is of the issuers expense.

Storage by HCS

Pursuant to NSAB2000 §27 section C no 3, HCS does NOT take out insurance for fire, water and burglary in own name for account of client based on the insurance value of cargo +10% at the time of receipt for storage.

It is responsibility of client to ensure insurance coverage of the stored cargo whilst cargo is in custody of the forwarding agent.

Complaint

Claims must be made no later than on delivery, when it concerns any visible loss or damage, and otherwise within 7 days thereafter, Sundays and holidays not included. Claims must be in writing, if loss or damage was not visible by receipt.

Cargo insurance

Cargo insurance is made on demand. HCS encourages customers to take out a cargo insurance, if the cargo type and/or character makes an insurance relevant. HCS has taken out Freight Forwarders Liability Insurance (SAF) with reputable insurance company, as well liability insurance in accordance with statutory requirements.

Force majeure

HCS is not responsible for failure to meet its obligations during the agreement, provided that HCS can show that this is due to an impediment beyond HCS's control, which makes it impossible or unreasonably burdensome to fulfill the task, and which could not reasonably be expected to be taken into account by HCS prior to the occurrence of the impediment. This also applies to war, health crisis, epidemics or similar disease outbreaks and recommendations from the authorities in the same connection.

Law, Jurisdiction and Enforcement

These terms are subject to Danish law and the parties accept and agree the judicial district in which the HCS headquarters is located, as venue, (currently the district court of Glostrup, Copenhagen), or the Maritime and Commercial Court in Copenhagen, after HCS' choice. It is accepted and agreed, that a judgement against the customer, shall be enforceable in any country where the customer has registered an office/branches/subsidiaries, i.e., and that HCS choose as country for execution.

Transportation of Food – IFS Logistics

All transportation and handling of food carried out by HCS are performed in accordance with the applicable requirements of IFS Logistics Standard, including requirements related to hygiene, traceability, temperature control, contamination prevention, cleaning and disinfection, and training of personnel.

HCS ensures that relevant procedures are implemented and maintained to safeguard food safety throughout the transport and any intermediate handling. The customer is responsible for providing correct and complete information regarding the nature of the goods, including any specific temperature requirements, hygiene requirements, allergen risks, or other special handling conditions prior to transport.

Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, HCS does not assume responsibility for product-specific quality parameters beyond those related to transport safety as defined by IFS Logistics and applicable legislation. Any deviations observed during transport that may affect food safety will be documented and reported to the customer without undue delay.
